Washington State History Museum at 1911 Pacific Avenue has Noted regional historian, Paul Dorpat, in collaboration with photographer Jean Sherrard, has created a state wide version of his popular 'Then and Now' photo feature in The Seattle Times. Washington Then & Now compares and contrast historic photographs of state locations with contemporary photographs. This is the largest visual analysis ever done on Washington. Guests will witness the many ways humans have left their mark on our state. This exhibit until June 11th

On the JUNE 27th the Washington State History Museum at 1911 Pacific Avenue will have the following on exhibit.

Fast Moving Water: The Hoh River Story

Acclaimed nature photographer, Keith Lazelle, has captured the beauty of the Hoh River, one of only a few virtually intact rivers in the contiguous United States, in Fast Moving Water: The Hoh River Story. Explore the rich history and cultural significance of this ecosystem, including efforts to protect and preserve it.

Molly O'Brien, formally of Photo Pro, has opened her own shop. The shop is Kincora Photo @ 4515 N Pearl St., Tacoma. It is on the corner of 46 St and Pearl. Across from Bargain World. She will process film and digital images. Phone 253-212-2176, fax 253-212 2189.

IMPORTANT NOTE FOR CANON CAMERA OWNERS

Canon will clean the mirror boxes on the EOS-1D Mark III and EOS-1Ds Mark III digital SLR cameras for free because of an oil-spotting problem on the low pass filter surface.

In a service notice, Canon notes, "We have discovered that images taken by some EOS-1D Mark III and EOS-1Ds Mark III digital SLR cameras may exhibit ring-shaped spots.... These ring-shaped spots are the images of oil lubricant on the surface of the low pass filter (LPF), which is located in front of the CMOS sensor. This oil is used inside the Mirror Box to lubricate some of the camera's moving parts. If the oil is applied too liberally when the camera is manufactured, it can become scattered onto the surface of the LPF through normal camera operation." If you've experienced this oil spotting or have seen oil on the surface of the back side of the mirror, contact Canon's Customer Support Center. It will arrange free cleaning of the mirror box.

American Frame Corporation

This is a reminder to you folks our club is a member of the The Alliance Program with American Frame Corporation. AFC will contribute 5% of every purchase you make to our club. So the next time you order from AFC let them know you are a member of The Alliance Program with Sound Exposure Photo Club. Help yourself to a free catalog (you will find them on the back tables), their pricing will be hard to beat. AFC is also offering free custom cut or uncut mat boards with a purchase of a metal frame. Go to www.americanframe.com for more exciting information and details. Thank you for those who have made purchases with AFC. Every dollar you spend helps the club.

A FREE and quick way to resize a lot of JPEG images at one time.

Have you ever wanted to resize a lot of photos at one time so you could share them by email or put them on a CD?

Here's a FREE program that can do it for you. Try Fast Image Resizer.. It's a fast way to resize multiple images. Simply specify the size and JPEG quality you'd like. Then drag your files from Windows Explorer to the program.

In seconds, you'll have resized images. How easy is that? It will only work with JPEGs images.

Go to adionsoft.net and download it.

The Washington State Historical Society is accepting digital photography submissions for Four Points of Washington State. Each submission is to consist of a set of four different views, all taken from the same location. Accepted submissions will be on display starting in September in the Four Points on-line gallery at WashingtonHistory.org.

Entries must be submitted before August 1. As contemporary examples of digital photography, images should be taken no earlier than January 1, 2009. Each image should be at least 4" x 6" at 300 dpi resolution in uncompressed TIFF or JPEG file formats. All accepted submissions become the property of the Washington State Historical Society, with no restrictions on usage. Each image displayed in the on-line gallery will be credited to its photographer. Images with rights restrictions will not be accepted. The Society does not pay any fees for images received as part of the Four Points project, and reserves the right to reject any content deemed unsuitable for our public audiences or not in keeping with the Four Points theme.

Dear Members;

We have a problem with our scheduled meeting set for June 24th. Janet is going to see if Tuesday, the 23rd, or Thursday the 25th, is open. All of the other Wednesday evenings this month are booked, except for Wednesday the 10th. I will let you know as soon as I hear back from Janet, hopefully we will get our future meetings straightened out.

I sent you a message the other day with Roy's email and Postal address; please have your digital images ready for Roy as soon as you can.

Have a great day.

Doug

Wildlife Photography, Todd Cheney

Hello fellow photographers

My friend and camera repair man, Todd Cheney, thought you were someone who might appreciate getting this email and my monthly email updates.

Our newsletters include information on wildlife photography, my photographs and upcoming tours and photo workshops. My wife Angie and I lead wildlife photography tours to Ecuador (her homeland) and other countries and workshops here in the US. If you would like to take a look at our website, its www.trogontours.net. Below is our last email and link to our newsletter. Feel free to forward this email to others you know who may be interested in wildlife photography or birds. If you would like to be removed from this list, please let us know.

Best,
Nate Chappell
Hi friends,

Our April newsletter features information on photographing hummingbirds with one flash, including photos from Arizona and Ecuador. Take a look at www.trogontours.net/april2009.

We still have room on all of our current workshops and tours, I will give a brief update on each of them below.

Ecuador, August 1-12, 2009, This is a spectacular tour covering the eastern slope of the Andes Mountains and the western edge of the Amazon basin. We have 2 commitments and several people that I am waiting to hear from. I need to have my lodge reservations in by May 15th, so if you are interested please contact us before then. I have dropped the price of this tour from $3,100 to $2,900, the single supplement is $400. A few people have inquired about only going for one week because of work commitments. I am making this available as an option. It would be from August 1-8, 2009 and the price would be $2,100, $100 single supplement. Please see www.trogontours.net/ecuador2 for details.

Our tours and workshops are a lot of fun and educational. Feel free to give us a call at 253-512-1060 or email us at nchappell@trogontours.net with any questions you may have.

Good photography and birding to everyone,
Nate and Angie Chappell
